INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING E-FILE WAIVER REQUEST

The waiver will not be processed if any information is missing.

- Enter the business name
- Enter the mailing address, City, State and Zip Code
- Enter the nine-digit employer payroll tax account number and Federal Identification number.
- Provide a statement for the specific reason(s) why you are unable to comply with the regulation.
- Sign the form under penalty of perjury. A request with a missing signature will not be processed.
- Date the form, print the name and title of the person, and phone number.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Waiver requests cannot be applied retroactively. Once a waiver request is received and the review process is completed, a response letter will be sent out in approximately 10 business days. If approved, the time period for the waiver will be stated on the letter. Please keep the waiver response letter for your records. Upon the expiration of the approved waiver period, a new waiver request must be submitted outlining the reason(s) why you are unable to comply with regulation requirements.

REASON FOR WAIVERS

You must show a good faith effort to comply with the e-file requirements before a waiver will be granted. The waiver request must include a statement as to the specific reason(s) why you are unable to comply with the regulation. Additional supporting documentation can be submitted along with the waiver request. Computer system failure, break in internet coverage or failure to maintain internet access would not be considered good cause for a waiver.

SIGNATURE

The e-file waiver must be signed by the employer or duly authorized agent. If the employer is unable to sign the request due to illness, absence, or other good cause, any person standing in close relationship to the employer may sign the application. However, the signer must state the reasons for his/her signature and his/her relationship to the employer.

WAIVER REQUEST DUE DATE

The initial E-File Waiver Request form should be submitted by the end of the quarter you are requesting the waiver to begin. If approved, the waiver will begin in the quarter received and be effective through the remainder of the approved waiver period, not less than 24 months. Upon the expiration of the initial approved waiver period, you must start to electronically file. If you are still unable to comply with the electronic filing requirement, a new E-File Waiver Request form should be submitted upon the expiration of the prior approved waiver period.
